UNLV Libraries presents
“Night at the Libraries” Event
for Nevada History Day participants
Monday, November 7th, 5:30-7:30pm
Lied Library, UNLV Campus

Get a Head Start on your Nevada History project by attending the Night at the Libraries event at the UNLV Libraries on Monday, November 7.

Librarians will conduct mini-workshops on
- topic selection
- finding books in the stacks using the Library of Congress call number system
- using historical newspaper databases in UNLV Libraries

Other activities will include
- tours of Lied Library
- tours of Special Collections for those students with an interest in researching a local topic related to this year’s theme. Special Collections which contains extensive collections of unique primary source material on the history of Las Vegas and Nevada.

Please note: workshops and tours will be offered at the following times:
5:40, 6:10, 6:40, and 7:10

You can attend one or two or all of these but you are not required to stay the entire evening.

Explore our Nevada History Day Research Guide to learn more about how to use the UNLV Libraries and for information on parking near Lied Library:
http://guides.library.unlv.edu/NVHD

Please RSVP here:
http://cal.library.unlv.edu/event/2855386

For more information contact:
melissa.bowles-terry@unlv.edu

UNLV Libraries presents
“Night at the Libraries” Event
for Nevada History Day participants
Monday, November 7th, 5:30-7:30pm
Lied Library, UNLV Campus

Get a Head Start on your Nevada History project by attending the Night at the Libraries event at the UNLV Libraries on Monday, November 7.

Librarians will conduct mini-workshops on
- topic selection
- finding books in the stacks using the Library of Congress call number system
- using historical newspaper databases in UNLV Libraries

Other activities will include
- tours of Lied Library
- tours of Special Collections for those students with an interest in researching a local topic related to this year’s theme. Special Collections which contains extensive collections of unique primary source material on the history of Las Vegas and Nevada.

Please note: workshops and tours will be offered at the following times:
5:40, 6:10, 6:40, and 7:10

You can attend one or two or all of these but you are not required to stay the entire evening.

Explore our Nevada History Day Research Guide to learn more about how to use the UNLV Libraries and for information on parking near Lied Library:
http://guides.library.unlv.edu/NVHD

Please RSVP here:
http://cal.library.unlv.edu/event/2855386

For more information contact:
melissa.bowles-terry@unlv.edu